THE PRODUCERS

Along every path in life, there continuously seems to be one outstanding person who leaves a lasting impression upon the students leaving Northeast. We have found such a person whose friendly smile and vivacious personality have been with us for eight enjoyable years and will always remain in the hearts of students and faculty as well. He is a teacher and a friend who is always there with his unending patience and willingness to help those in need.

In recognition of his talents and unselfish contributions to N.H.S., in admiration of his radiant personality and genuine concern for each students, in appreciation for his enthusiastic support of school functions, and in gratitude for the atmosphere of informality and trust he presents, we, the 1970 Aries Staff of Northeast Senior High School, dedicate this annual to Mr. Edward Aaron Adams.

IN EXPRESSION OF OUR LOVE . . .
WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK

MR. DOCKERY . . . A GUIDING LIGHT TO STUDENTS AND FRIENDS

THE MAKER OF NORTHEAST SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Behind every successful operation, there stands a strong administrator—a competent leader. The driving force of N.H.S. is our principal, Mr. L. Sam Dockery. His ability to use good judgement, his desire to exceed, and his sense of responsibility has made our school what it is today.

Mr. Dockery's dream of establishing an outstanding high school has become a reality. Many of the hardships and details of building this strong foundation were worked out through many combined efforts. The results testify to the ability, experience, and understanding he has shown and brought to these tasks, great or small.

He constantly strives for an intellectual atmosphere in which we may prepare ourselves for future life. He is directly concerned with our problems; many of us have found ourselves to be better individuals after a conference with him.

The attitude and wisdom which Mr. Dockery exhibits is an inspiration to all who have come and who will come in contact with him. He is a man whose words will be respected and remembered by all of us at Northeast Senior High School.

Mr. Luther Sam Dockery received his A.B. degree at High Point College, and his M.E. at UNC-G. He is principal of Northeast. This is Mr. Dockery's eighth season.

MR. WAGNER . . . A MAN MUCH ADMIRERD BY ALL OF US

Mr. Wagner's cheerful smile begins and ends each new day. His sound advice proves indispensable, time and time again. His patience and understanding help us discover ourselves and his strength and wisdom have won him the respect of the entire school.

Although he handles disciplinary problems, no one questions his fairness. He is a friend whom we love and whom we will remember.

He plays a vital role in the school program at N.H.S., and he has made outstanding contributions to this school. Mr. Wagner is an ardent supporter of school activities and an enthusiastic fan of all athletic events.

Mr. Wagner is always ready to entertain new ideas, and he deserves much credit for creating an atmosphere conducive to lively academic and extra-curricular pursuits.

Mr. Larry M. Wagner received his B.S. and M.A. degrees at Clemson University and Appalachian State. He is assistant principal of Northeast. This is Mr. Wagner's third season.

A WARM SMILE AND A CHEERFUL "HELLO" CHARACTERIZES OUR NEW SECRETARY

MRS. PEGGY WOODY

The administration of Northeast Senior High School has greatly been helped by the addition of a new secretary, Mrs. Peggy Woody. She plays important roles behind the scenes. We often forget to say, "Thank you" for the many things she does, but we are ever aware of the fact that we could not do without her.

Mrs. Woody eagerly accepts her responsibilities as secretary. She, unselfishly, gives of herself with love and human kindness. Her smiling face has already become a tradition at Northeast, and her reputation as "friend to all" is well known throughout our school. We shall never forget her outstanding devotion to us.

DIVERTISSEMENT

April 26, 1969, held excitement for all upperclassmen at Northeast Senior High School. It was not a night of an important baseball game or the day man set foot on the moon, but that of the unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom. This day was especially a busy one for the Juniors as they worked hard in making their plans for this event. The senior class relaxed as they made plans to enjoy it. An exceptional musical program was presented by the student choir and the Don Heath Trio. All of us were hypnotized by the splendor of this delightful evening. Many pleasant memories will re-create the events of this day within our hearts and minds in the years to come.

Students enjoy expressing their moods by dancing.

A variety of formal attire was displayed on that adventurous evening.

A well planned Jr. Senior Prom comes off with great success.

The band produced fine entertainment for dancing and listening.

Chaperones comment on the success of the prom over a coke.

Escorts and their dates relax after several dances on the floor.

The New Junior Marshals

Practice Hard for Graduation

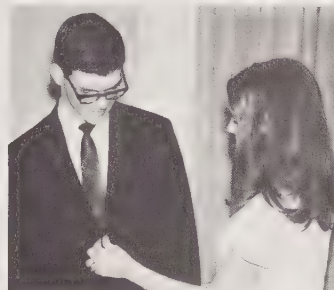

Each year, according to scholastic achievement, top-ranking juniors are chosen and honored as being Junior Marshals. Throughout their striving years at Northeast, these scholastic students display their ability of towering toward a goal of knowledge. It is the outstanding duty of the Chief Marshal to read aloud the names of the graduates. The honored Junior Marshals lead the procession of graduating Seniors and seat the relatives of these graduates at the commencement. As representative of their rising class, the Junior Marshals set an example of pure qualities of promising youth of today. Upon outstanding scholastic merits, the Junior Marshals for 1970-1971 are: chief, Cynthia Ritchie; Phillis Lambeth, Carollyn Justice, Jack Fleming, Robert Garner, Nancy Maness, Dale Kennedy, Cindy Crabtree, James Frazier, Susan Hedrick, and Joel Ritter.

Mr. Dockery gives the Marshals a pep talk.

Cynthia Ritchie helps James Frazier to straighten his coat.

Seeing who has the best posture is one of the objectives of Nancy Maness and Dale Kennedy.

Her smile is an expression of gratitude.

Carolyn Justice is determined to make Joel Ritter keep his shoulders straight.

Cynthia Ritchie pleads for help, but Mrs. Baker cannot take anymore.

The Graduating Class Possess Their Extreme Beauty

The homecoming court stops for alumni and friends to admire.

Sharon Gerringer receives the crown and a warm smile from last year's queen, Donna Rumley.

A happy queen rides off the field after halftime activities.

Alumni and students crowded Northeast gym as homecoming activities continue.

To announce the advent of autumn, Mother Nature adorns the trees and countryside with a rainbow of colors. Likewise, the campus of Northeast Senior High was arrayed with the splendor and awe of Homecoming. Numerous events added to the excitement of the day. Among these were the Powder puff football game, our pep rally, the crowning of our Homecoming queen, and the Homecoming football game itself. The enthusiasm of the student body and the palpable spirit of the team overshadowed our despondency over the final score of our Homecoming game. The highlights of the day were terminated with a dance following the game.

Cheerleaders—Spirit of '70

The cheerleaders at Northeast have been outstanding factors in the rising school spirit. Working hard after school, during pep rallies and at ball games have been major objectives of the cheerleaders.

The football team and basketball team have had their ups and downs, but the cheerleaders are always around to raise their spirits. When students seem to have no hope whatsoever, the cheerleaders are yelling their voices away with hidden hopefulness.

Richard Ward assists Steve White as he prepares to "go on."

Mr. Cullers instructs his classes with dignity.

Frances Baker displays her hidden talent.

and Self-Confidence Before A Group

Students in speech class learn how to be a critical audience.

Al Harris has finally caught up with the murderer.

Tim Cheek designs columns for the set of Antigone.

Tim Perry forgot how to play dead, and so he stoops.

Mr. Paschal proudly shows off his car that is not dented.

This visitor has not learned to read yet.

How big do the men grow around here?

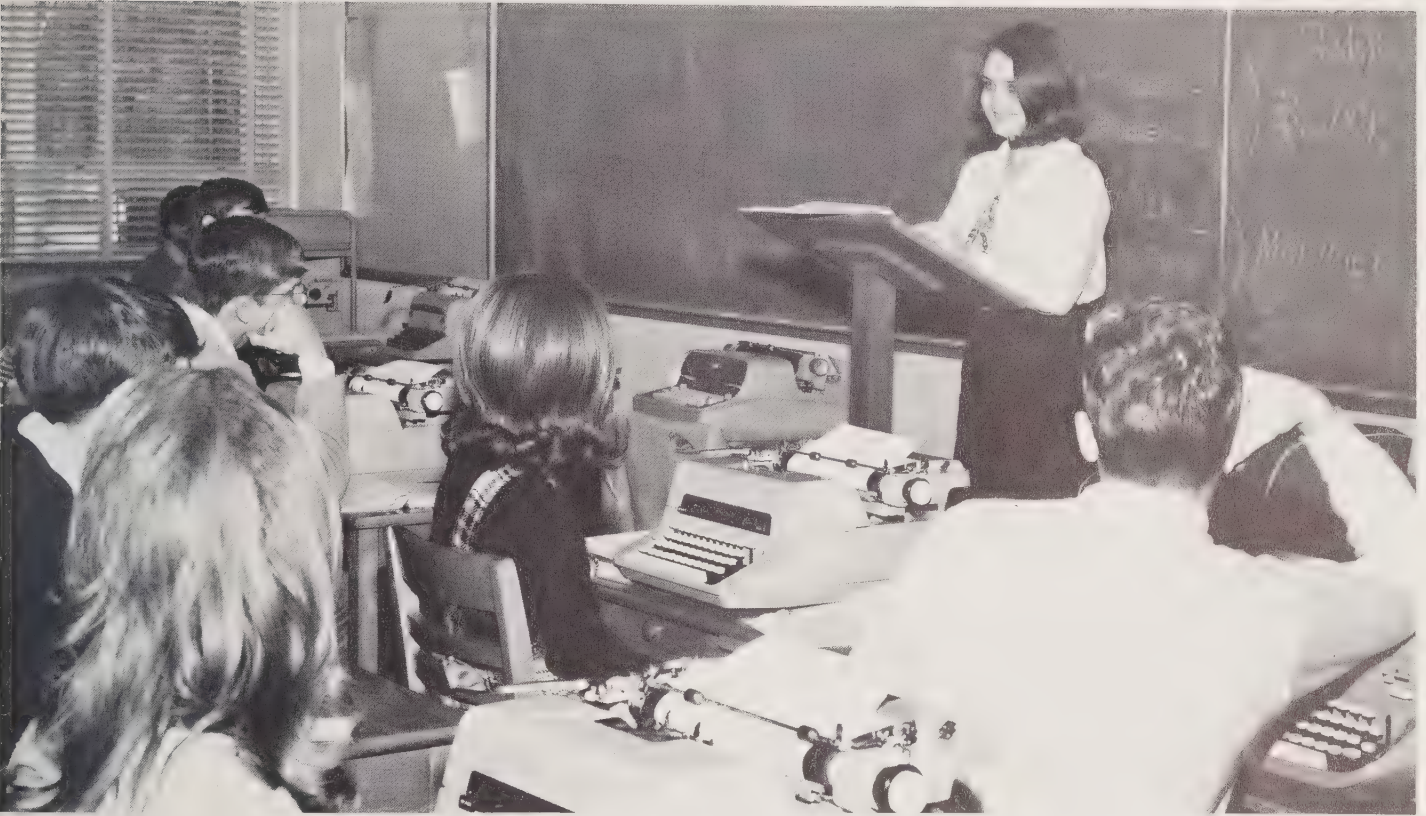

Could it be that she is on Candid Camera?

These girls add a little beauty to the school.

Students Concentrate On Learning

Typing is never a bore when you have a teacher like Mrs. Sparks.

Mr. Walker once again totally fascinates students.

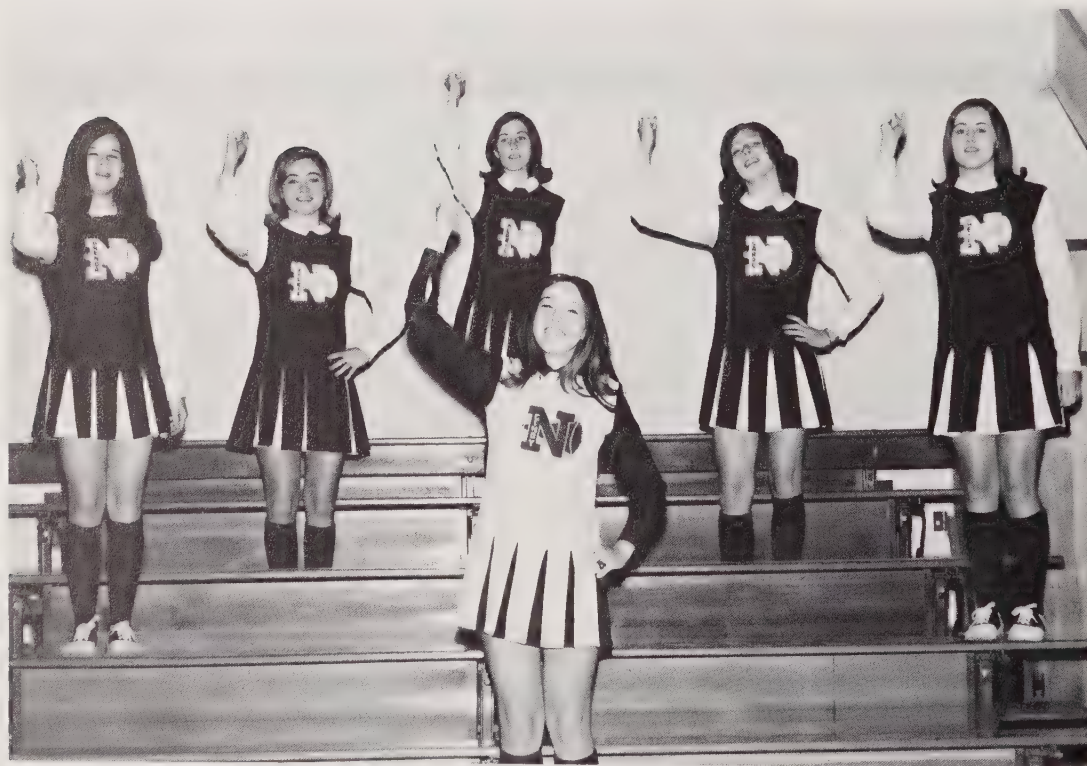

Students Exert Their School Spirit

School spirit has played a big role in the success of our football, basketball, track, wrestling, and baseball teams. In all of these sports, the players did their very best because they knew that they had the student body's support.

Three classes of students, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, have made this a spectacular year. As students look back on this year at Northeast Senior High School, they will be happy to know that each one had a part.

Students here at Northeast believe in yelling at pep rallies.

The J.V. cheerleaders are respected for their outstanding school spirit.

Gwyn Bartlett added many happy moments to ball games as the team mascot.

Discipline Is Not Taken Lightly At N.H.S.

Mr. Boles has ordered Jimmy Collins to do it or else.

Mr. Wagner takes Donnie McNeal and Gary Clapp to the "No No Room" for having bubble gum.

Danny Shupe sure is happy that he got his paddling over with.

Diane Biggs has been sent to the corner for something that she did exceptionally wrong.

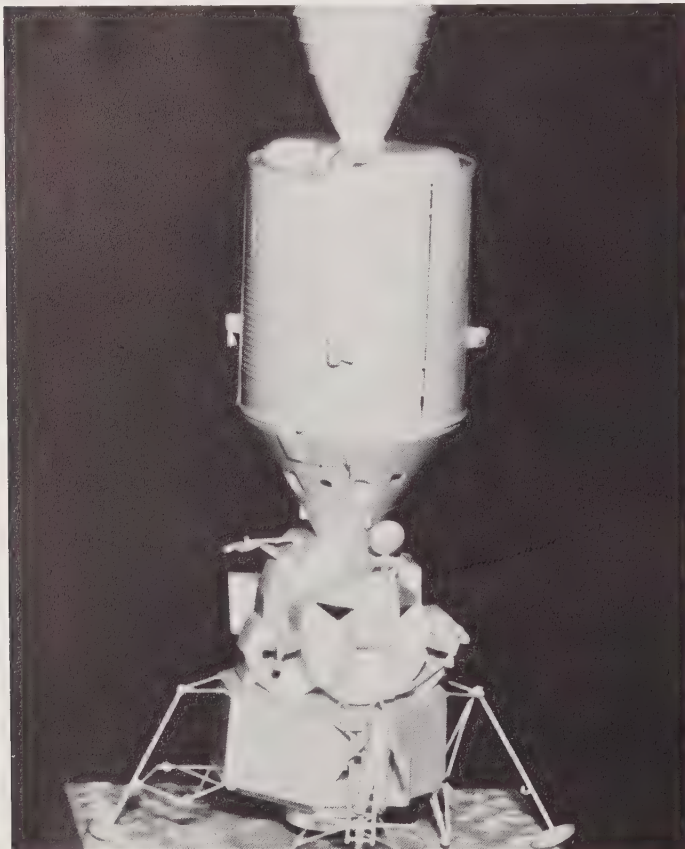

The United States

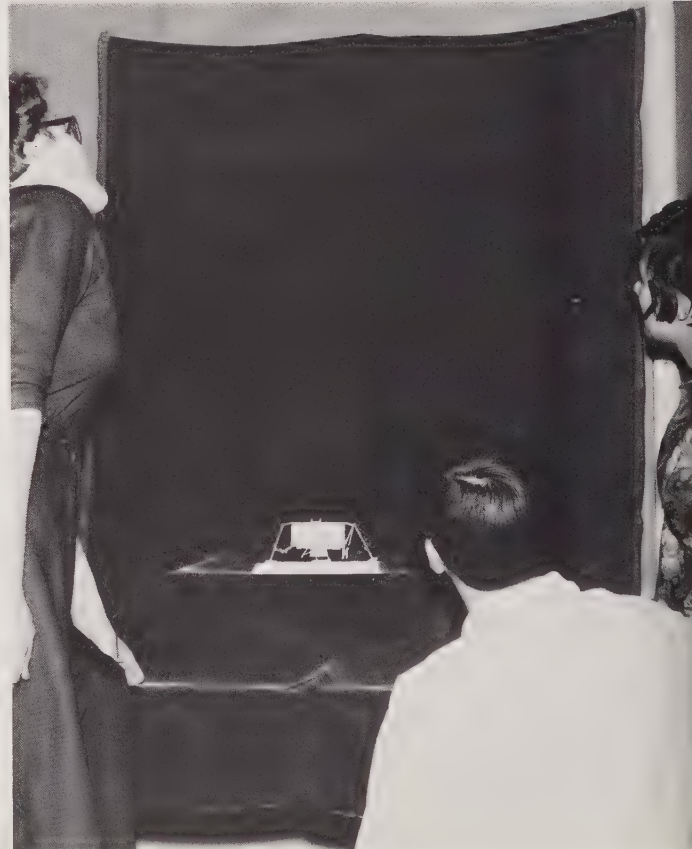

C.H. Frazier, Pat Swann, Mike Simpson, and Margaret O'Brien truly played a big part in the success of Apollo 11.

Looking at Apollo 11 with a depth of hope is prevalent in these faces.

Apollo 11 stands on its own.

Destination of Aldrin, Collins, and Armstrong is the moon, but we will wait and see.

Has Finally Reached Its Goal

The United States reached the moon first.

Was this the only hand that put a flag on the moon's surface?

A new hope for peace is almost home.

Since the creation of man, there have been outstanding individuals who have altered the course of history and "set the stage" for future generations. Three such individuals opened a new realm of exploration for mankind on Sunday, July 20, 1969. On this day the three American astronauts aboard Apollo 11, Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins, and Edwin Aldrin, landed the first man on the moon. In this spectacular moment an age-old and once impossible dream became a reality. We, the 1970 Aries Staff, would like to honor these three gentlemen and all others who were responsible for the success of Apollo 11. By fulfilling their roles to perfection, Neil Armstrong, Edwin Aldrin, and Michael Collins set a new stage for future generations. In the words of Neil Armstrong, "One small step for man became one giant leap for mankind."

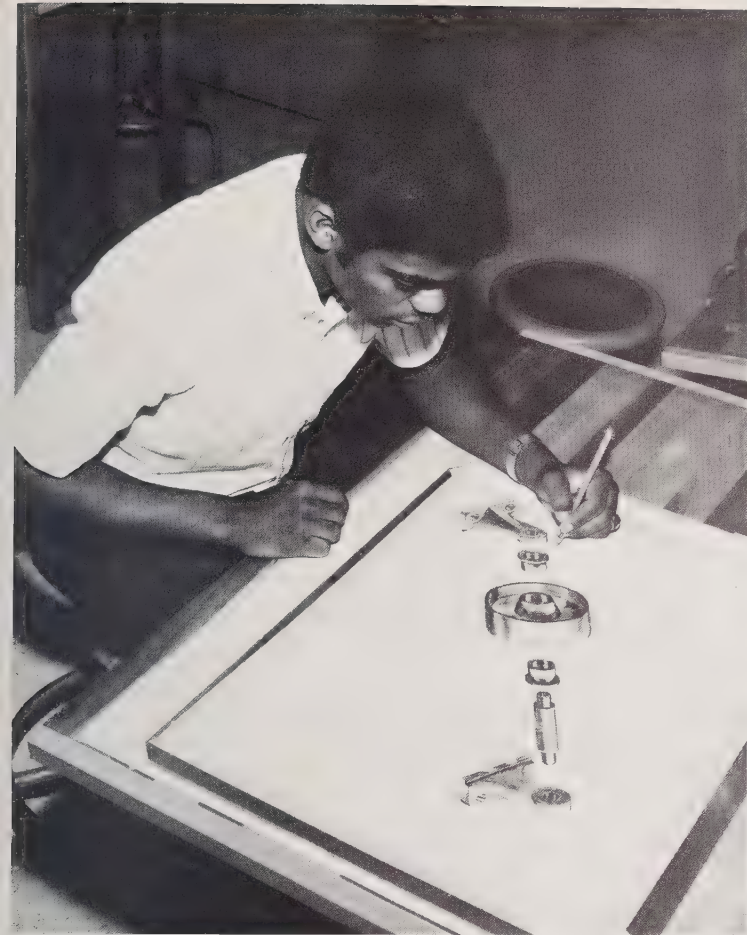

Mr. Smith and his class are proud of their accomplishment.

Horticulture classes keep our school in tip-top shape.

Bricklaying and carpentry classes have almost completed their work.

This drafter has finished his shading project.

Robert Ruffolo demonstrates the automatic hacksaw to one of his fellow students.

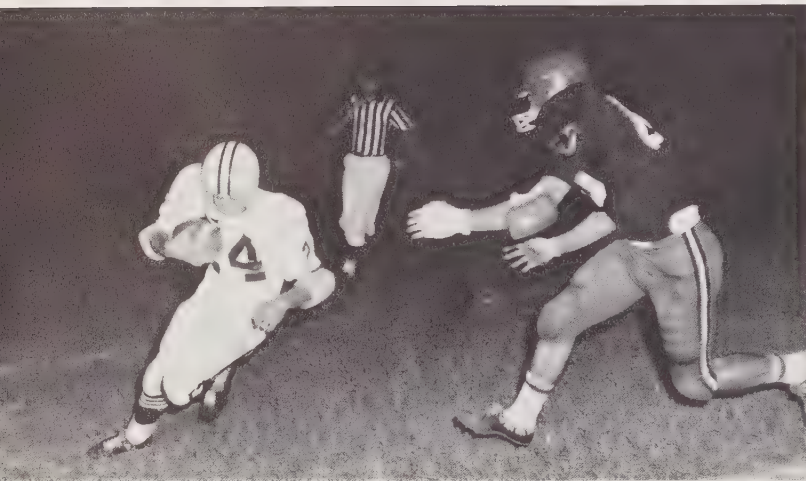

This bricklaying class was happy to be a part of the stadium's completion.

Calvin Clark makes sure that the figures given to him were correct.

Coaching Staff—'70——a Great Team

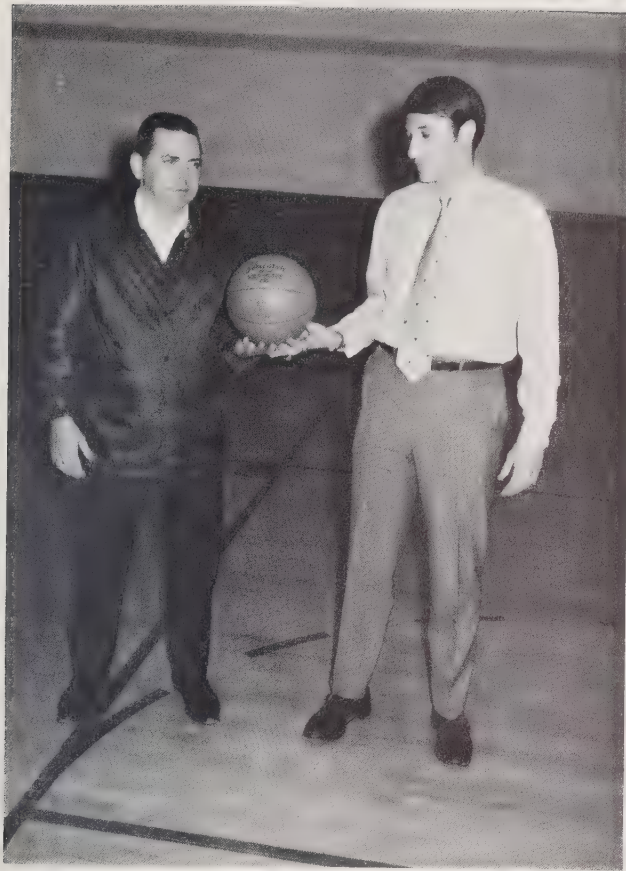

Coach Andrews, Coach Boles, Coach Styles, and Coach Horney.

Football, Mr. Styles, line coach; Mr. Andrews, back coach.

This year was one of heartbreak for our fine staff of coaches as well as for the entire student body. N.H.S. has always been proud to say that their coaching staff is one of the best in the state.

To these men we of N.H.S. are always proud to help in any way and to claim them with honor.

Basketball—Mr. Boles and Mr. Horney team up.

Baseball— The coaches that made up this team were Mr. Styles and Mr. Boles.

Wrestling— Coaches of a championship team are Mr. Bookout and Mr. Combs.

Capability, enthusiasm and tough breaks gave the Rams a somewhat less than desirable season. Unfortunate situations coupled with strong second halves left the Northeast Eleven a disappointing record. Outstanding team effort contributed to some very exciting moments in every contest.

The Rams had a very encouraging season even in the face of sometimes bitter defeat. New formations helped the team build confidence. N.H.S. should be able to look to better years ahead with optimism.

Some of the boys who were outstanding this were Frank Norton, Mark Bush, Alvis Moore, Gerald Fryar, Steve White, Ronnie Rudd and many others. However, only one member of the Ram's team made all conference. This player was Jimmy Collins.

Coach Andrews finds co-captains Mark Bush and Gerald Fryar very capable.

FOOTBALL—'70

Tackles: Frank Norton, Mark Bush, Steve White, Alvis Moore, Al Harris.

These are some of the things that bring back memories of past football days.

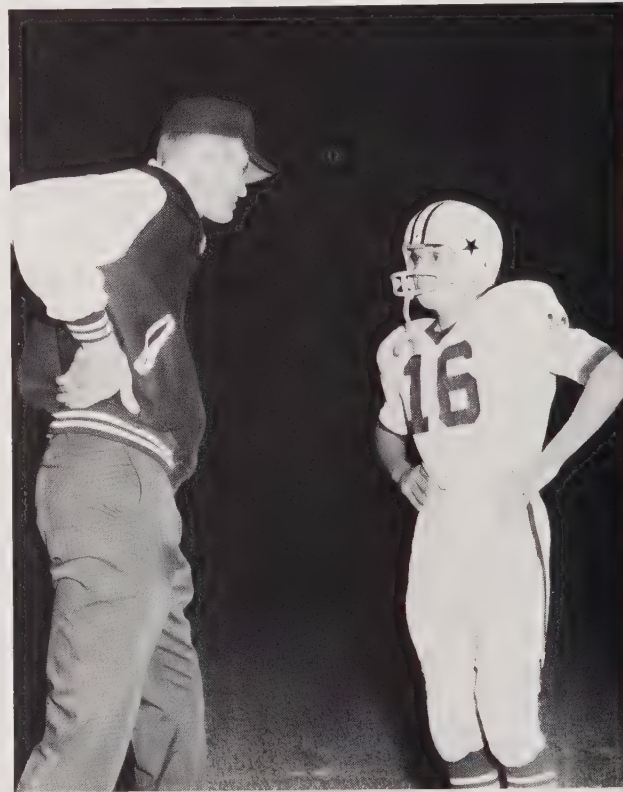

Fred Ashworth proved to be a fine center to Mike Cobb.

Team effort gave N.H.S. spirit.

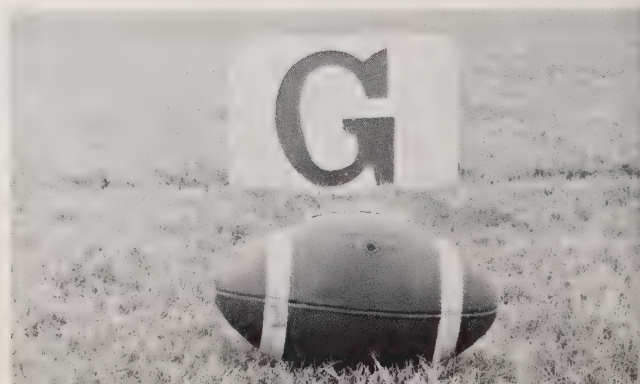

Guards: Robert Cobb, Gary Clapp, Mike Gregson, Ronnie Whitt.

Coach Andrews has a "little talk" with Mike Cobb at half time.

Backs: Clayton Nance, Warren Richardson, Jimmy Collins, Danny Cave, Ronnie Rudd.

Offensive End, Steve Troxler

Defensive End, Gerald Fryar

Defensive End, David Westmoreland

Gary Clapp waits for his turn to play a man's game.

The saying "A chain is only as strong as its weakest link" if applied to Northeast would only mean we have a strong "chain." The boys have worked together and played together for a long time.

Eight boys will be leaving Northeast this year after playing at Northeast for four years together. A few have been playing together longer than that. These Senior boys are Steve Thompson, Jimmy Huffines, Ralph Sears, Don Ledbetter, Gerald Fryar, Melvin Patrick, Mark Bush, and Steve Troxler.

Even after this loss of great players N.E. will still have a fine team next year from the boys still left on Varsity and some new talent coming up from the Junior Varsity next year

RAMS Look To Midstate Championship

Always strong contenders in the Mid-State 3-A Conference, the Rams returned with experienced players to pose a threat to teams vying for the championship. The Rams nine, as in the past, represented Northeast well in the conference and state contests. One of the most successful sports at NHS, baseball offered many exciting moments for fans throughout the season. Coach Boles and his experienced seniors made an impressive team. With a tradition of winning the team contributed another great season to history books of NHS sports.

Outstanding Seniors

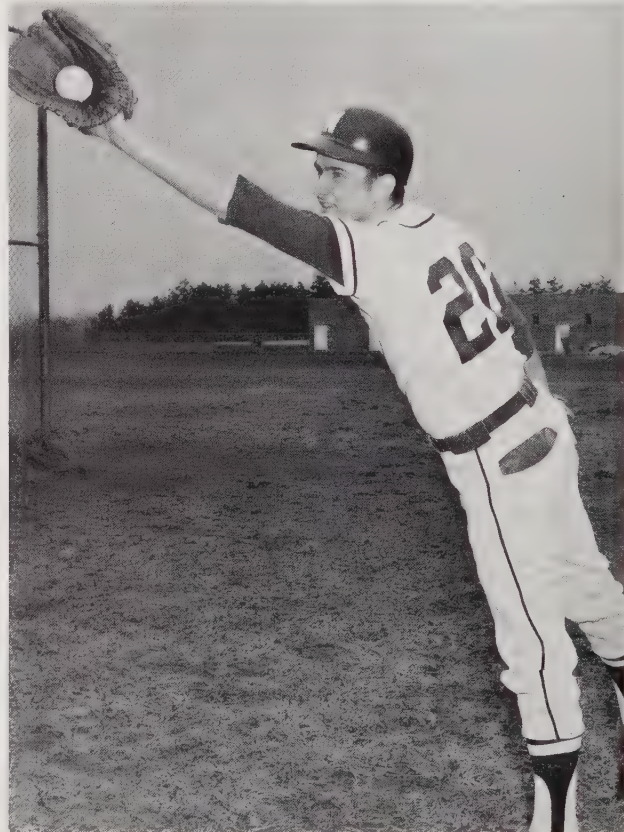

Steve Troxler reaches to make an easy out.

Through many years of practice, catcher Mark Bush helps prevent errors behind the plate.

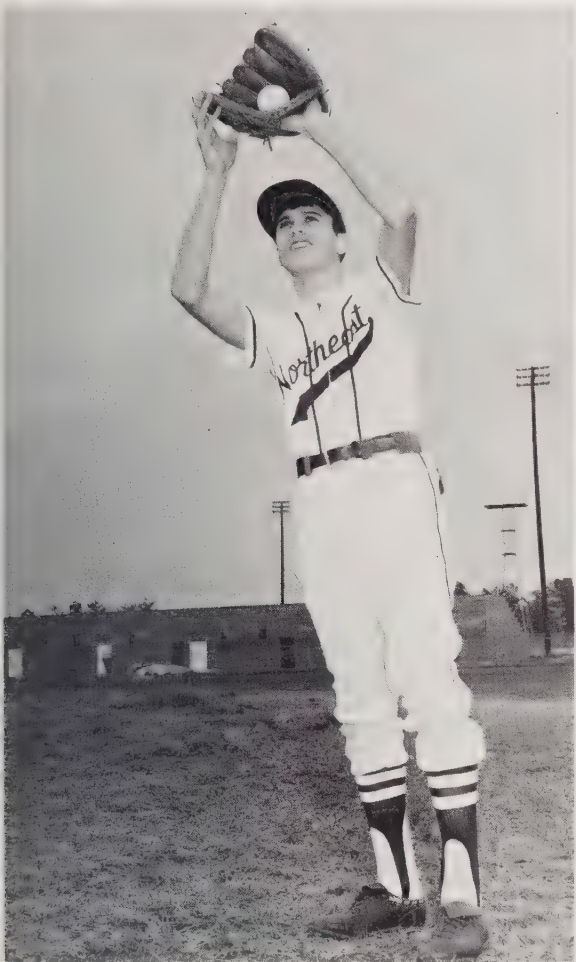

Jack Caviness skillfully handles an unpredictable grounder.

Ralph Sears leans to put another batter out.

of the Diamond

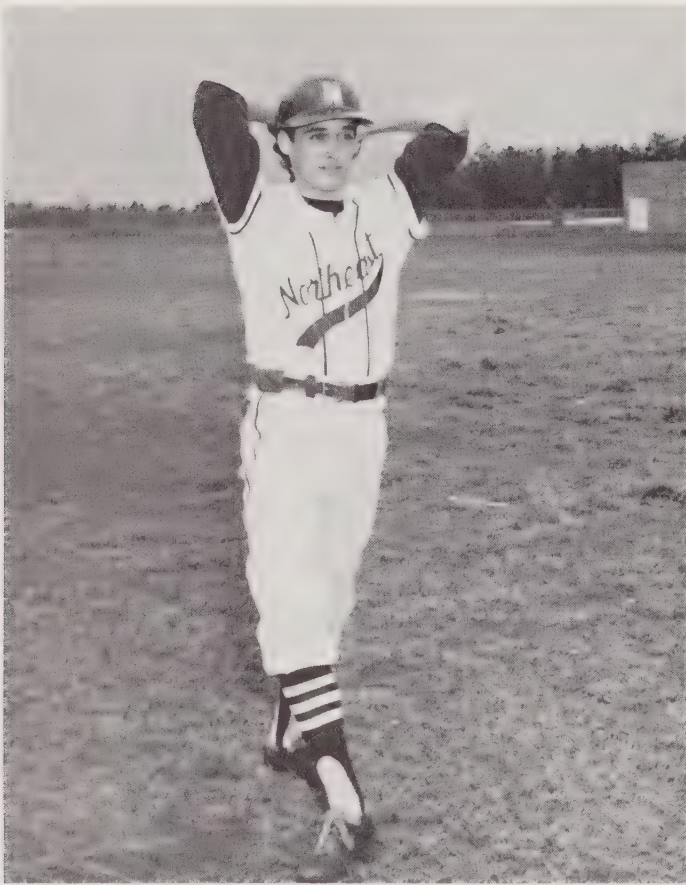

Steve Thompson makes a difficult catch look easy.

Jimmy Collins stretches to put another batter out at first base.

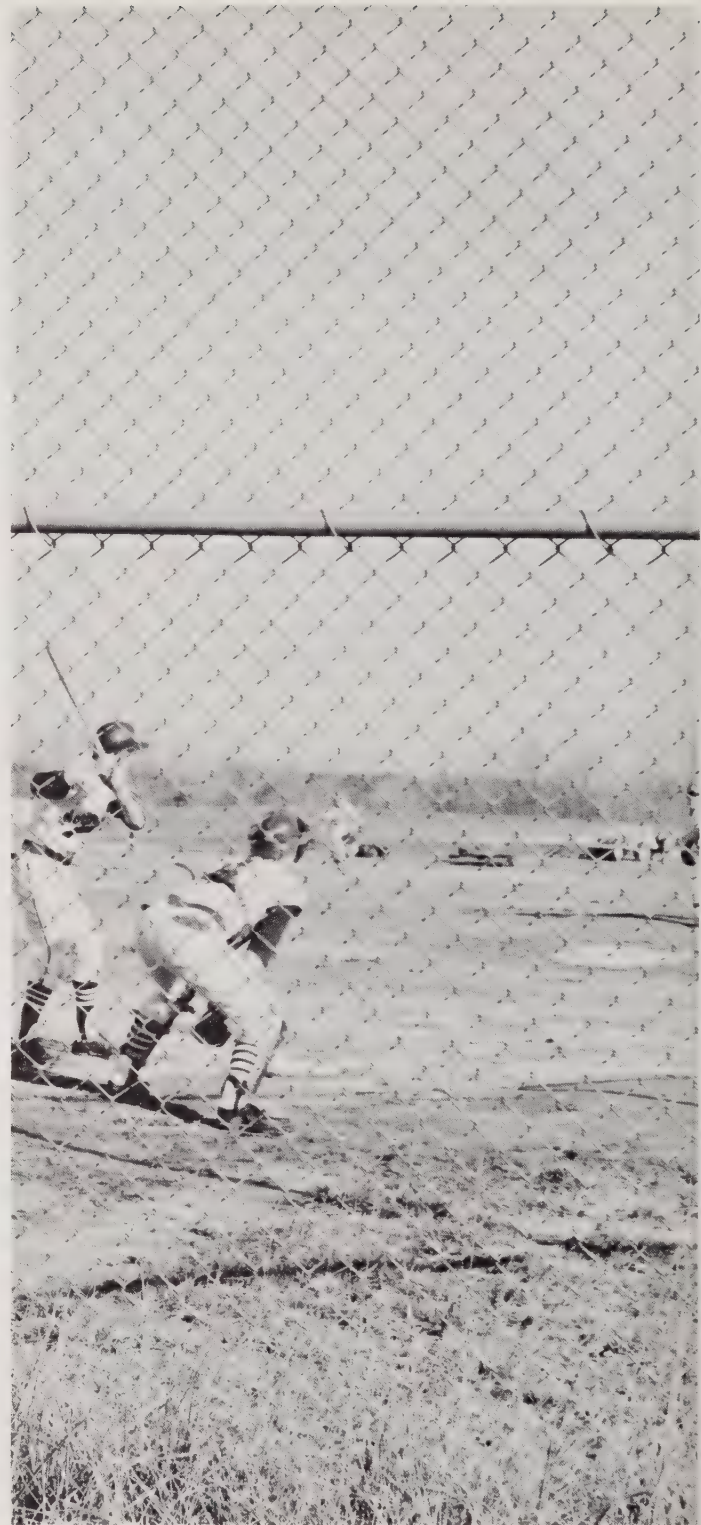

Practice makes perfect for Mike Whitley, Jimmy Huffines, and Ricky Minor.

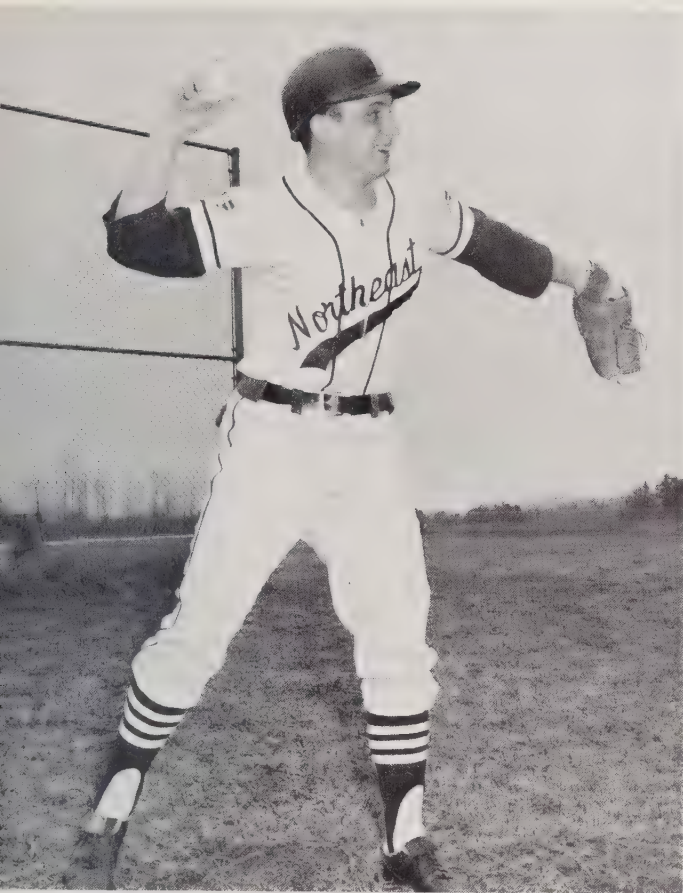

Mike Cobb carefully watches for a signal from the catcher.

"Hee Hee, I bet I get you out!" thinks Donnie McNeal.

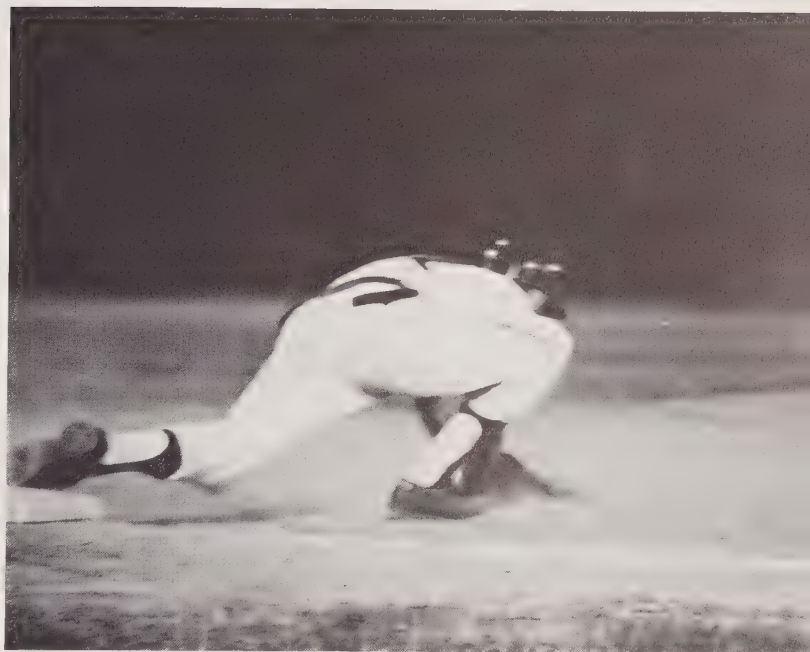

Ram victories are accomplished through hours of hard practices.

Dwight Wall fires a ball to second to begin a double play.

Juniors look ahead as baseball heroes

First baseman stretches to be sure.

Catcher Danny Cave watches closely the runner on second base.

The batter waits for the home run pitch.

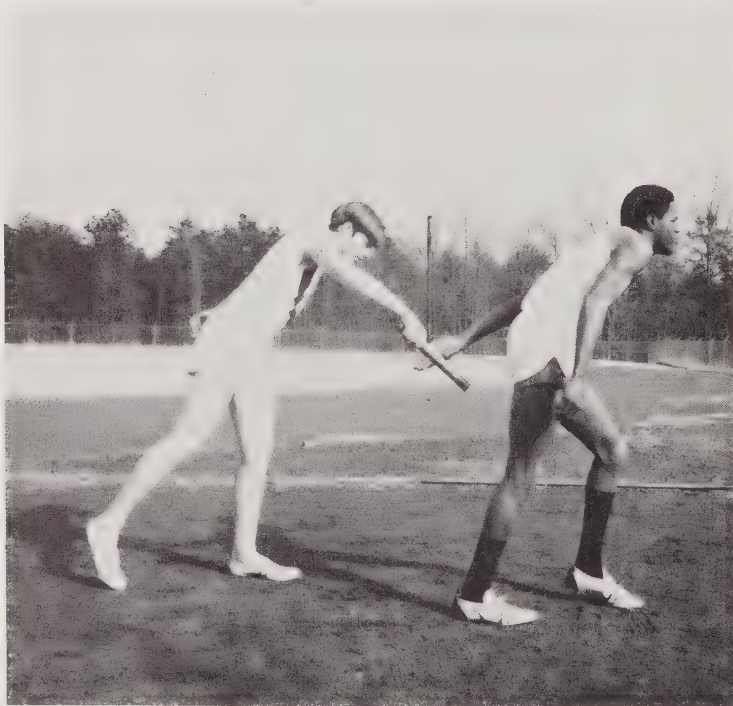

Cindermen for '70

The carefully planned supervision of Coach Andrews plus the outstanding ability of the Ram team should combine to defeat our opposing teams. Many new faces showed up at the track this year with many promising features.

Senior boys who will not be back next year but have done much for the team are Steve White, Danny Faucette, Wesley Scott, Donald Sipe and Glen Richardson.

Dale Kennedy passes the baton off to Glen Richardson.

Steve White throws the "shot" with a good arm and fine form.

The pole vault expert this year should be Calvin Jones, who shows great talent in many events.

Mark Rudd blasts out of the starting block and on to a victory for N.H.S.

Mike Lewis pivots to throw the discus.

...ning the corner for the last time is Robert Ballard, Philip Goke, Wesley Scott.

Senior Cinderman—Glen Richardson, Wesley Scott, Philip Goke, John Rankin, Earl Vanstory, Steve White, Larry McNeil, Donald Sipe, Danny Faucette, Coach Andrews.

Girls Basketball

Kay Gourley, Judy Gregory, Barbara Summers, Cathy Lewis.

Phillis Lambeth shows good defensive form that helped keep the opponent's score down.

Sue Andrews makes the perfect shot that has helped win many games.

INTRAMURALS

Mrs. Andrews acts as the coach of the girls basketball team and also as director of intramural sports for girls.

Intramural sports provide a way of learning the proper technique of layups.

"Well, I'll be . . ."

Mrs. Andrews takes great pride in her intramural and P.E. classes.

Most of the girls come through "praising" and with "flying" colors.

Carmen Norris shows perfect form as she serves the ball.

J.V. Football

The Baby Rams ended their season in a three way tie for champions. The boys played hard all season and the rewards were sweet for our boys in blue. All the boys deserve a good handshake and pat on the back.

Mr. Snyder and Mr. Rush have a talk with some of the J.V. team.

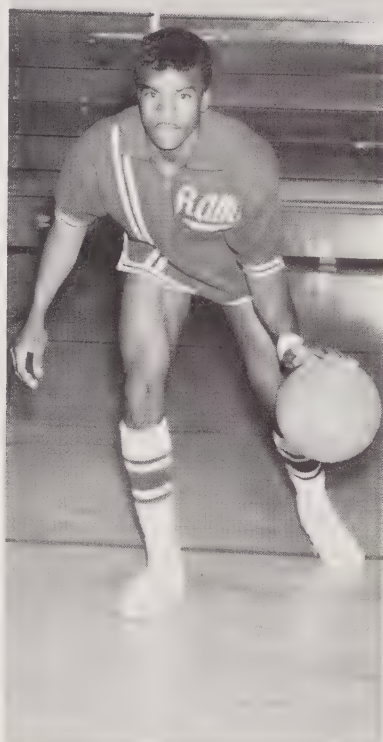

After having to dress in the cage all season, the boys that will move to varsity will be glad to get one of these for their own.

The J.V. Basketball team proved to be a fine outlet for next year's Varsity team. As the boys moved out onto the court, the opposing team moved aside for the Baby Rams.

Under the best possible instruction of Coach Horney, the Rams came, saw, and conquered. Good luck in the future.

First row: Norman Mock, Martin Barrow, Ronal Wilson, Bill Shively, Harry Jefferies, Mike Madden. Second row: Delano Faucette, John Rankin, Don Johnson; captain, Carl Collins, Benny Redden, Alfred

Hayes, Warren Richardson. Third row: Coach Bookout, Rocky Faircloth, Kenneth Bullins, Alvis Moore, Frank Norton, Burlin Gainey, Willie Slade, Coach Combs.

Kenneth Bullins and Harry Jefferies work on their "lightning" quick moves.

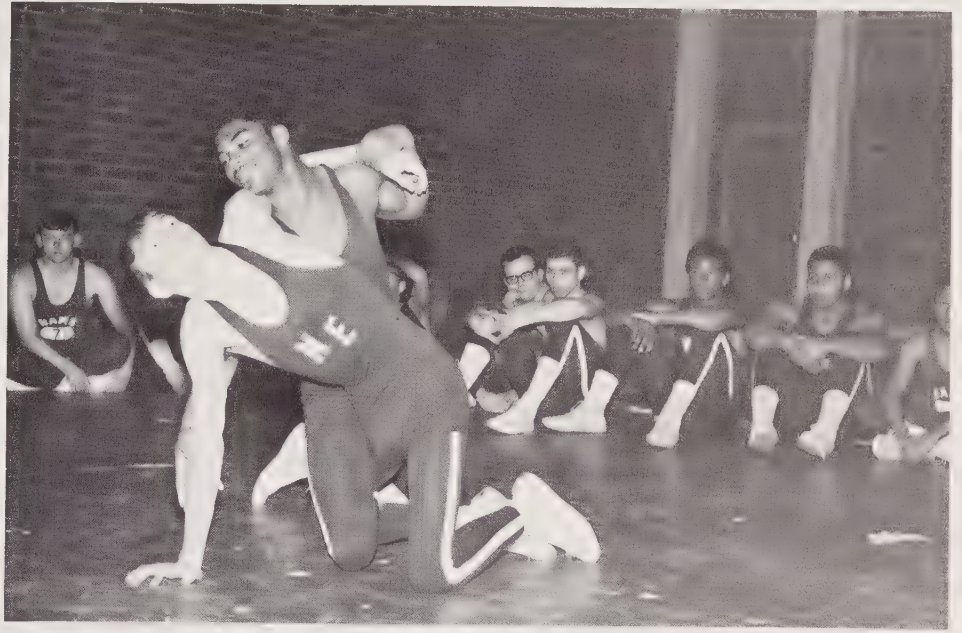

Frank Norton and Alvis Moore really "work it on out."

Matmen bring home a championship to NHS

This was a year of great pride for our team of musclemen of N.H.S. as we placed No. 1 in the conference. The boys worked long, hard hours to prove to all N.H.S. students and to themselves that they were the best in any conference.

The Senior boys who contributed much to the team and will not be able to wrestle for the Rams again are as follows: Bill Shively, Don Johnson, captain; Harry Jefferies, Kenneth Bullins, Frank Norton, Alvis Moore, Norman Mock.

Bill Shively finds out why Don Johnson is captain of the team.

Coach Bookout instructs his team on how to be champions in '70.

Proudly holding the well earned trophy is Coach Combs and Coach Bookout.

The boys work hard at practice to learn new and better holds over their opponents.

Tymesia Gravely carefully examines a drawing in the drafting club.

as does Drafting

Robert Flynn, Ricky Lowman, Johnny Taylor, Claude Griffin, and Eddie Tweedell.

Models constructed by drafting students show why the Drafting Club receives so many blue ribbons.

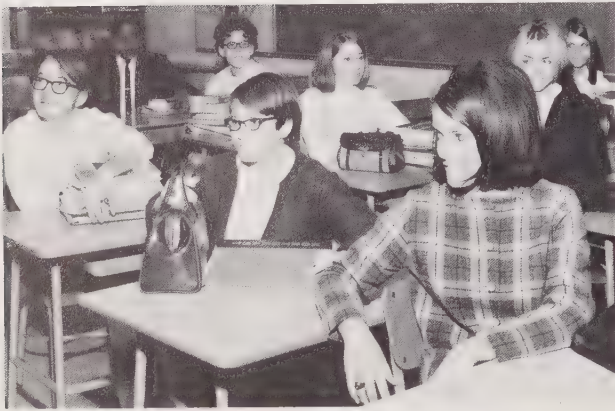

Drafting layouts are designed with skill and precision.

Vocational skills are encouraged

The Distributive Education Club of America operates on a basis of business techniques. It is designed to develop future leaders for marketing and distribution.

The DECA talent show sponsored by the club is an anticipated highlight of every year. DECA members display their achievements and knowledge by participating in conferences and contests.

Distributive Education challenge students not only on the job but in the classroom as well.

A smile escapes from advisor Mr. Payne as he endeavors to answer a bewildering question.

Officers of DECA are Lewis Apple, President; Becky Adams, Vice-President; Denise Lowe, Chaplain; Joyce Brown, Parliamentarian; Terri Way, Historian; Vickie Francis, Reporter; Paula Jarvis, Secretary; and Melissa Ellis, Treasurer.

by excellent training programs

Mr. Payne discusses with Kay Pearman the advantages of Distributive Education in school.

Nancy Naylor and Debbie Foster learn to operate a cash register and return change correctly.

Ramrodders prove to be real "troupers"

Northeast is fortunate in having a capable and select group of students to drive its buses. The Ramrodders are known for their safe driving records, as well as their patience and iron nerves which are a necessity for any bus driver.

Sharon Puckett and Gloria Reese realize what it means to be late getting to the bus.

"Good morning Mr. Wilson! Where shall I park today?"

Mr. Wilson stands at his lonely post each morning and also casts his eagle eye on the Bus Club as their advisor.

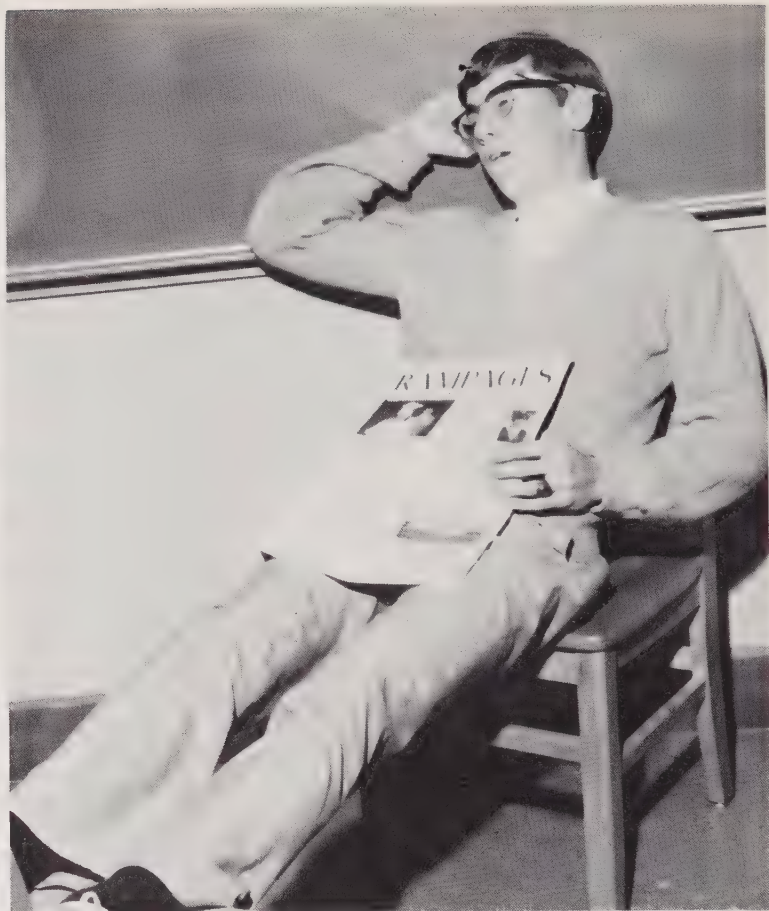

Officers: David McCollum, President; Robbie Spencer, Reporter; Eugene Lamb, Secretary-Treasurer; Bill Lanning, Vice-President.

"Come on, you guys. Have a heart!"

Janice Fryar, business manager, evaluates their investment with Advisor Mrs. McGimsey.

Danny Faucette, editor, rests after a day of proofreading his product.

Sports editor, Rob Spencer doubles as photographer for the Rampages.

Gloria Reese, news editor, and Donna Pardue, editorial editor, rekindle an interesting news item.

“Extra! Extra! Read all about it!”

The symbol of the Rampages Staff is endless hours and hard work to prepare another edition of our school newspaper. The Staff worked together to keep the students at N.H.S. informed with the latest happenings, gossip, and humor. New styles, new ideas, and the opportunity for the students to have more voice made the newspaper something of which the student body can be proud.

Vickie Francis and Wanda Wallace, reporters, find that personell on the Rampages staff is very con-vivial.

Danna Fleming, feature editor, and Donna Pardue wait for Nelda Oliver to type out a by-line.

Reporters Kathryn Jones, Becky Adams and Susan DaBiero review their sub-missions.

"Blood, sweat, and tears" combined with hard work

A book that is placed on the best seller list does not maintain this position by a mere incident. Only an author's skill and an abundance of inspiration can motivate the production of such a book. The 1970 Aries Staff has labored hard to produce a yearbook which will capture the imagination of the reader and preserve many cherished memories.

Class editors Sharon Puckett, Susan Myrick, Beverly Sales, and Steve Stone take a moment off to relax.

Editor-in-chief C.H. Frazier thinks out a decision before acting on it.

Typists Cathie Holmes, Debbie Carty, Phyllis Jones, and Nelda Oliver find an unusual spot to work.

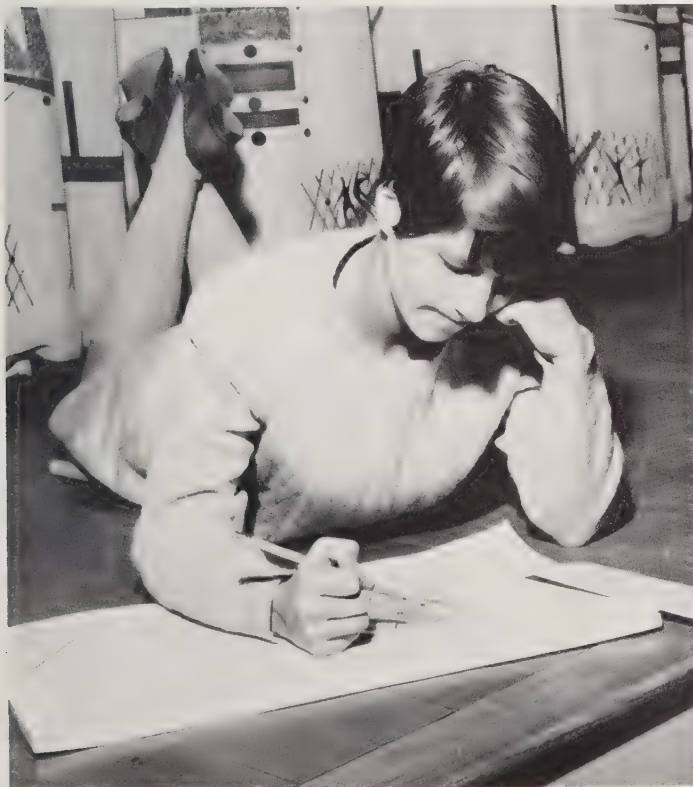

help the '70 Aries Staff produce a winner

The sign is misleading. Susan Josey and Treva Icenhower, organization editors, compiled a difficult section under difficult odds.

Advisor Mr. Cullers is caught by the cameras after a day of picture taking.

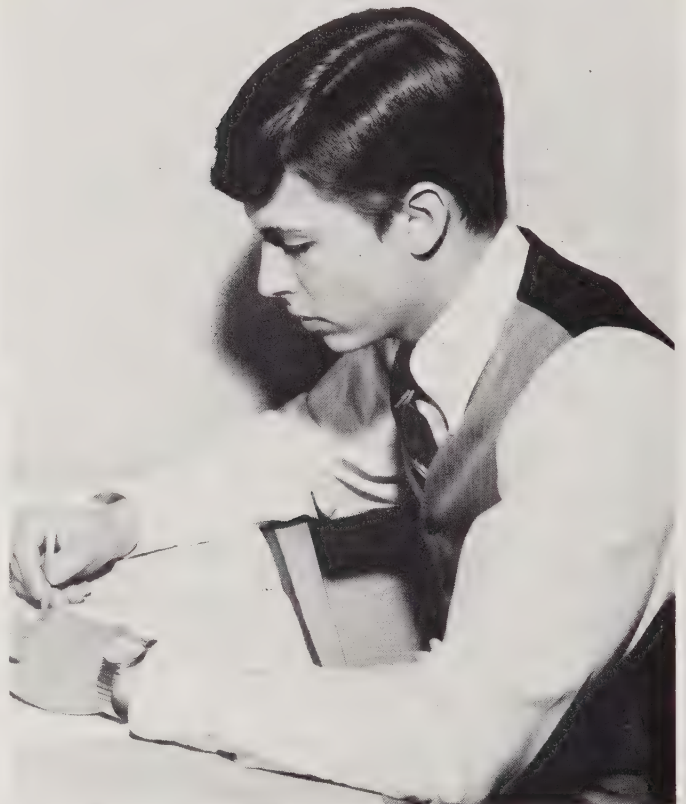

Gwynn Bartlett, feature editor, works out a cropping problem for her section.

Ronnie Whitt, sports editor, waits patiently at the mailbox for pictures he needs.

Pat Swann worries about copy, copy, and more copy.

Mike Vaughn strives to meet perfection.

One little slip up in money management did it to Cathy Smith.

Eeh! A mouse? No, Cheryl is trying to escape the wrath of an irate editor.

Disgust to C.H. is Mr. Cullers tearing up another one of Treva and Susan's layouts.

He's mine! No he's mine!

Pull a little harder.

To "heaven" with copy!

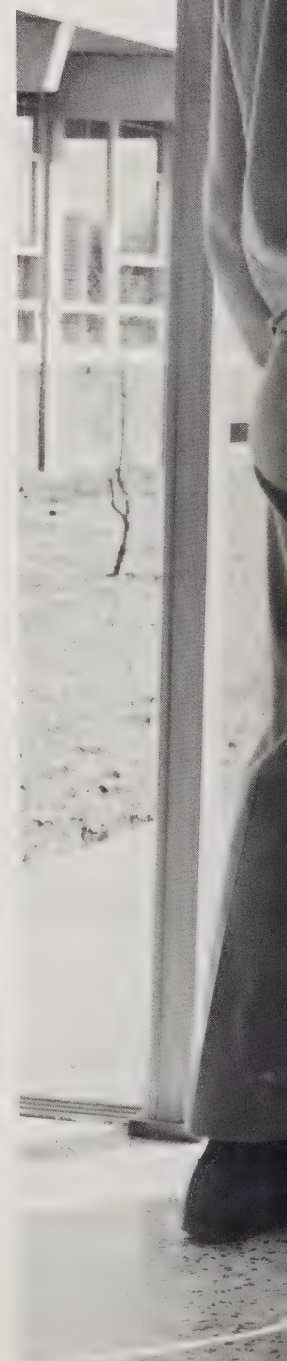

Annual Staff members after meeting a deadline?

"Please don't swing! I will turn my copy in tomorrow."

Life-The Rising and Setting of a Sun

A Life is the rising and the setting of a sun:
Man clinging hopelessly to remnants of the past,
Living fearfully and haphazardly in the present,
Peering timidly yet searchingly into a future of darkness.

The world is plagued
By the unhappiness and strife
That can break a heart
And disrupt a life.
Yet a beam of light
Can tame the blackest night
And brighten a starless sky.

A Life is the rise and the setting of a sun.
Man's struggle to drive the clouds away
And to lengthen the shortness of each day.
Always be brave and forever stand tall
Though perhaps your flame is quite small;
For a productive life always sheds enough light
To pierce the darkness of a troubled world,
And brighten the strangeness of each stormy night.

Outstanding Seniors Saluted

Every individual has his own role to fulfil in life. As the curtain rises, several individuals are spotlighted and stand alone on the stage. Here at Northeast, our play has produced stars who will long be remembered as outstanding personalities and will be noted for their ability and willingness to help others. The producers of the 1970 Aries recognize those Seniors who have filled their roles so very well.

Ronnie Rudd, in his own quiet and simple manner, proved himself to be a personality whose memory will long be a cherished one. Ronnie played a key role in both sports and academics at Northeast.

Always pleasant and witty Treva Icenhower came to N.H.S. and became one of the "remembered seniors."

Prominent Personalities Set

Sharon Gerringer became one of those people who through leadership and achievement will become one of the "who's who" of N.H.S.

"Invaluable" would be the word to describe Cathy Smith. From majorette to Aries business manager, she has proven herself an asset to N.H.S.

the stage for future

Gerald Fryar, a manly sports hero, has won the admiration of many with his sincere, yet witty, personality. Gerald, an all-American guy, rates at the top of the charts at Northeast.

A dull moment never exists when Don Ledbetter makes the scene. Don is not only a quick witted guy, but he is also a pace setter in sports and academics.

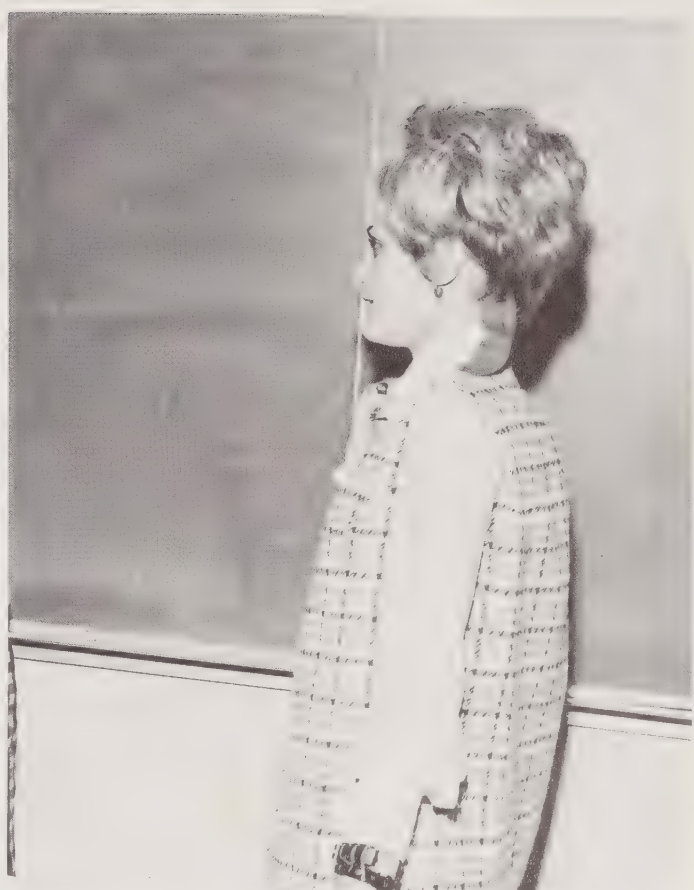

Superior Qualities

Leadership ability, intelligence, and willingness to help others, add C.H. Frazier to the list of personalities that will long be remembered.

Patricia Swann, the Good Samaritan, never says no to anyone who asks for help. Her assistance in "troubled times" will endear her for many years in the hearts of seniors.

Miss Aries

Feminine charms may lie in a smile, a walk, a wink, a curl, but true beauty glows from within the female form. The candidates for the title of Miss Aries are nominated by the senior class on the basis of their personifications of beautiful qualities and deeds. Thus, it is with much pride and honor that the yearbook salutes Dreama Carty as Miss Aries of 1970.

Miss Dreama Lynn Carty

Dreama finds that by being in F.B.L.A., it can help one achieve high goals.

Dreama is never too busy to take time out to read a good book.

As Bonnie Cassell and Debbie Carty congratulate Dreama, she still finds it hard to believe that she is The Miss Aries.

Good light heads off drowsiness and speeds you through assignments. So make sure your bulb is in the proper size, that your lamp shade reflects light, and that it flares enough to diffuse light over all your work area. Make good light your friend . . . for life. It costs so little, means so much!

... AND SO DURING MAN'S
BRIEF LIFE-TIME HE PLAYS
MANY PARTS ...

Therefore, we, the 1970 Aries Annual Staff, would like to present our final act in our brief, but exciting publishing career.

We would like to thank those people in the "lime light" who did so much to help us with our production:

Mr. Cullers, our adviser, who watched over us with parental care in our time of crises,

Mr. Dockery, our principal, who served as a superb counselor and a great financial aid,

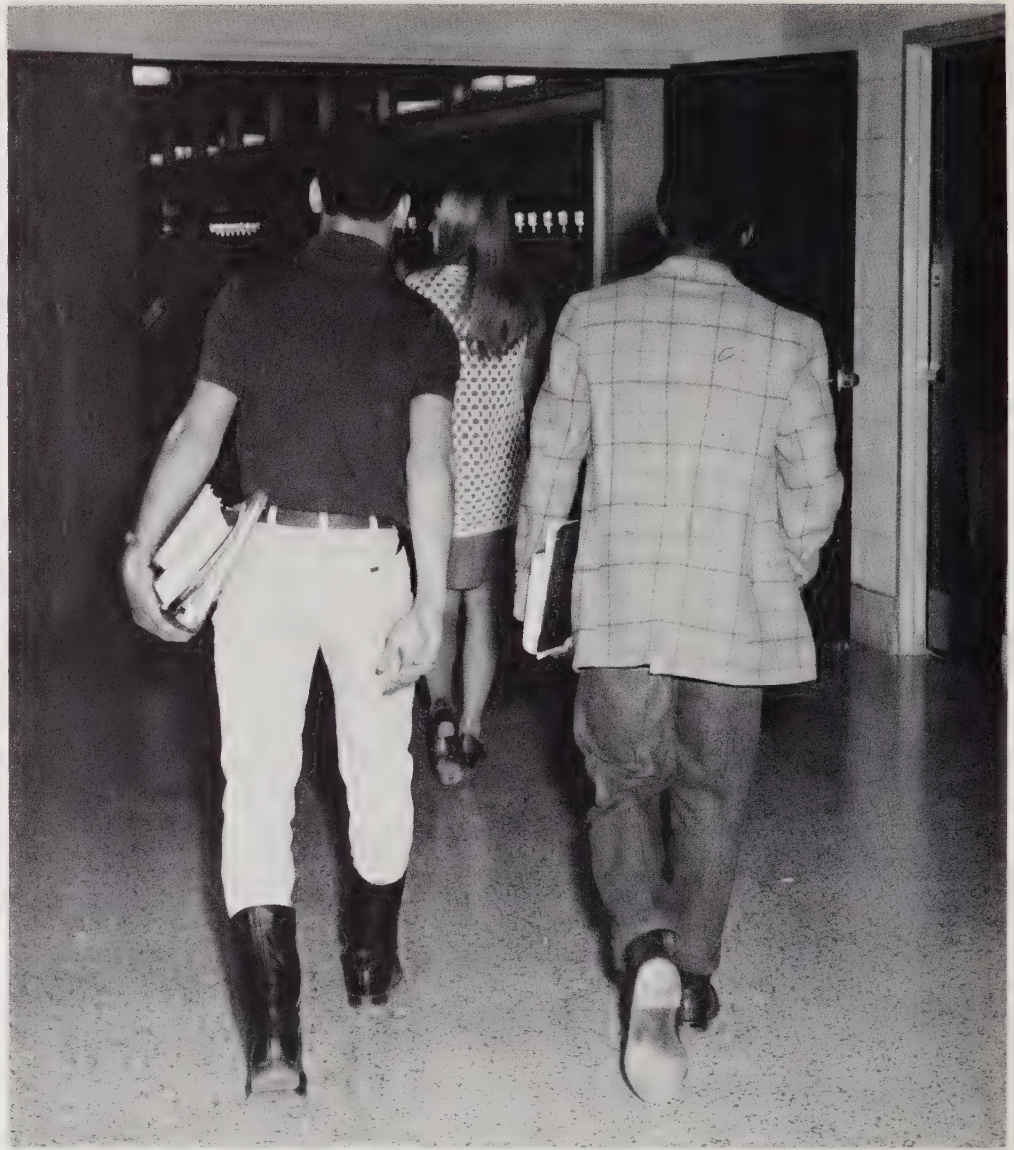

Mr. C.F. Boswell and Mr. Smith, who represented Delmar Studios with a great amount of patience and understanding, The administration and all the teachers who smiled grimly when we broke into their classes for pictures,

The student body who didn't mind getting out of their study halls for pictures, Our patrons, whose advertising made our production possible,

And last, but certainly not the least, we thank all those individuals who helped us out with the little things.

We would also like to extend our best wishes to the 1971 Aries Annual Staff, who will have a large task ahead of them next year.

The 1970 Aries Annual Staff

Northeast Alma Mater

Hail to Thee dear old Northeast High,
To Thee our voices raise,
We pledge our Faithful Loyalty
Throughout our high school days.

Her sturdy walls protecting us,
Her Loyalty we praise,
Our hearts held high with memories
Of all our high school days.
